

Tertiary Writing Network: Writing the future

Wellington December 2nd – 3rd

Venue: Rutherford House. Victoria University. Pipitea Campus

We invite all writers in the academic, creative, and professional genres to participate in our colloquium exploring the links between teaching, research, and creative and professional practice. The conference intends to capture the 'spirit of the future' in the writing professions.

Keynote speakers:

DR LISA EMERSON Associate Professor, School of English and Media Studies, Massey University

DR ANNE SURMA Senior Lecturer, English and Creative Arts, Murdoch University, Australia

DR JOHN MACALISTER Senior Lecturer, School of Linguistics and Applied Language Studies, Victoria University of Wellington. President of the Applied Linguistics Association of NZ

GREGORY O'BRIEN Poet, painter, editor and journalist

Call for Proposals:

The conference theme calls for submissions from writing professionals, academics, teachers and technical practitioners, which explore current and future-orientated aspects of writing in areas of rhetoric and argument, genre composition, creative writing, discipline-specific research writing and creative and professional practices. Please direct all questions to: twncconference2010@gmail.com

Conference Registration Details:

Early bird full registration (closes 29 October 2010) $240

Standard full registration (after October 29 2010) $290

Single day $160 registration

Student single day $100 registration

Please direct all questions to: <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/victoria-conferences/registration.aspx>